FFIEC Reporting for CRA Compliance, Including Recent CFPB Updates to HMDA

Tuesday, January 23, 2018

2 - 3:30 p.m.

Compliance with the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) has always been a top priority for CRA officers, senior management, and the board. Having a solid “satisfactory” or even an “outstanding” CRA rating is imperative for your bank. CRA exams are tough! Whether you are a small, intermediate-small, or large bank, this session covers the CRA examination handbook regulators use. It reviews areas that are important to all banks and then address areas pertinent just to intermediate-small and large banks. Even if you’re a small bank today, you might not be tomorrow, so it’s good to know what’s expected at the next level. You’ll also learn how recent HMDA changes affect CRA compliance requirements. Tools are provided to help review your CRA program before examiners arrive. The results of your self-assessment should be reported to the board, so there are no surprises. If weaknesses are identified, this webinar teaches you how to implement corrective actions to strengthen your CRA efforts.
