FFIEC Third-Party Risk Guidance: Appendix J for Vendor Business Continuity Issues & More

Thursday, May 17, 2018

2 - 3:30 p.m.

The FFIEC's Appendix J is an important amendment covering four key business continuity principles that should be addressed with vendors. Appendix J focuses on financial institutions' responsibility to strengthen technology resilience and maintain sound practices, regardless of whether technology services are outsourced. If your operations go down when your third party goes down, both you and your vendor need a strong prevention and remediation plan for this potentially high-impact event. A strong vendor management program ensures your vendors have the right plans in place if disaster strikes. Join this session to learn the important aspects of the Appendix J guidance and how it relates to business continuity issues.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Four key principles of Appendix J from the FFIEC IT Examination Handbook
- Appendix J's impact on your other third-party risk practices
- How business continuity affects the six vendor management pillars
- Best practices in vendor management
- What to do when disaster strikes
- Importance of a risk-based approach

TAKE-AWAY TOOLKIT

- Disaster recovery infographic — how and why it extends to your third parties
- Infographic — business continuity in relation to your third parties
- Employee training log
- Quiz you can administer to measure staff learning and a separate answer key
