Dealing with Dormant Accounts, Unclaimed Property & Escheatment

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

2 - 3:30 p.m.

Dormant accounts and unclaimed property pose unique, and often complicated, problems for financial institutions. Procedures and practices regarding dormant accounts and unclaimed property in safe deposit boxes have come under attack by both consumers and state agencies that are entitled to escheatment. This webinar explains the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act and the tools needed to evaluate its procedures and practices regarding dormant accounts, unclaimed property, and escheatment. Since escheat laws vary, this webinar does not cover state-specific escheat laws. However, you are able to find your state-specific escheat laws by using the contact information in the handout.

HIGHLIGHTS

- What is the difference between unclaimed and abandoned property?
- What are your institution's responsibilities under the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act?
- What is considered a dormant account?
- When is it permissible to impose dormant account fees?
- What notice must be given to the accountholder?
- Can a borrower's active loan relationship serve as contact for a dormant account or safe deposit relationship?
- What are the best procedures for escheating the contents of a safe deposit box?

TAKE-AWAY TOOLKIT

- Contact information for the unclaimed property administrators in every state
- Employee training log
- Quiz you can administer to measure staff learning and a separate answer key
